“What On Earth Am I Doing Here?”

Discovering Your Life's Purpose

Second Annual Women's Retreat
February 4-5, 2012

Villa Maria
Retreat & Conference Center

In scenic Frontenac, Minnesota

Enjoy a relaxing, contemplative weekend with like minded women. Rejoice in the wonder of discovering the life God intends for you. Celebrate, maybe for the first time, the safety and joy of being in sisterhood with women who love and listen unconditionally. Experience the beauty of winter by walking, snow shoeing or simply watching the woods while sitting by a blazing fire with friends. Let your guard down, be the woman God wants you to be, and enjoy the company!

“What On Earth Am I Doing Here?” Discovering Your Life’s Purpose

God created you intentionally with a great purpose in mind. But how do you find your purpose? Who did God create you to be? How do you know? We’ll gather at the retreat to talk about this journey of faith where we can walk intimately with God and discover the abundant life God promises. We’ll hear teaching about some women from the Bible, have discussions, quiet time, plus lots of laughter, fun and food. Our hope is that you will leave with deeper understanding of who you are and how big your God is. You won’t want to miss it.

To experience the Villa Maria is to experience more than a relaxing getaway to a simpler time and place. It’s to experience eagles soaring overhead, deer and turkeys grazing outside your window, and more than 70 acres of trails, woods and meadows in which you can get lost and find yourself. Waking up at the Villa Maria Retreat & Conference Center is waking up refreshed, body and spirit. (villamariaretreats.org)

Retreat Leader

Julia Holtze is passionate about Jesus Christ and helping others discover the abundant life He promises. Through one on one pastoral counseling, spiritual formation and prayer, as well as large group retreats and events, Julia helps people discover more of God’s presence on earth and become who they were created to be.

“My greatest desire is to help awaken hearts to God’s very real presence and transforming power here on earth. I have seen first hand that as we engage in our relationship with Jesus Christ, lives are changed, hope is renewed, hearts are restored and God’s glory is revealed.”

“It is my great joy and privilege to walk with people on their faith journey.”
